More than 150 members of the Gulf States Camera Club Council will attend the GSCCC Annual Convention in New Iberia, LA on April 19-21, 2012. The Gulf States Camera Club Council is made up of camera clubs from Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi. Attendees at the conference are novice to professional level photographers who all have a love and passion for photography.

Because you are a leader in the photographic industry, the Lafayette Photographic Society is respectfully asking for your sponsorship of this convention. There are many different ways in which you can assist us with this convention. The numerous types of sponsorship opportunities are listed on the attached form. You can choose one or more ways of participating.

We would be honored to have your company as a sponsor of the GSCCC 2012 Annual Convention. If you are interested but need more information, please contact me. Attached is a form for you to indicate your level of sponsorship. Simply return this form. It is important that you commit early so that your company will get the recognition it deserves on our website, flyers, posters, brochures, etc.

We look forward to having your company be a part of this exciting and educational event. The birds will be at Lake Martin, the azaleas will be blooming, the crawfish will be plentiful, the weather will be perfect, and the food will be awesome--what more could you want? Come pass a good time with us at the GSCCC Convention in New Iberia, Louisiana.

Sincerely yours,

Debbie L. Burkheiser
